A Day Of Thanks And Reflection

Thanksgiving is as old as the need to worship. Many nations set aside days to invoke Divine thanks for the bountiful blessings of the harvest.

In Japan it is the "New Tasting Festival" in Sardinia colorfully clad natives meet at the "Festival of the Sun" while throughout Europe the plaintive voice of the violin and trumpet and the tambourines mark the week-long Gypsy festival with dancing in the streets. In India's Punjab state natives dance the Bhangra at harvest time, while the Swiss flock to the capital city of Berne with their wares.

However, it was Colonial America, and the Plymouth Bay Colony where white and red men shared the harvest, exchanged gifts, and gave thanks to the Supreme Being — which imprinted this holiday in the minds and hearts of all Americans.

Today is a far cry from this historic event — the munificence of Nature in production of foodstuffs, which is our daily life, gives us cause to take time out to pause and reflect, and give thanks!

We may be proud of our contributions to America's Table necessities and Her ability to share her bounty with the undernourished of the world.

From The Farm

"The American farmer's voice in politics grows fainter with every election year and every legislative roll call."

"And yet, his good works are the root of our economic prosperity and our good health today."

"Most recent figures on food bargains indicate that less than 10 percent of the average working man's disposal income is actually being spent on food now. The 'good old days' of 50 years ago, 45 percent of American disposal income had to go into the grocer's till."

"President Johnson expresses this another way:

"Thirty years ago, the city work toiled 85 hours each month to feed his wife and children. Today he works less than half as long (38 hours), and the food his family eats is both more appetizing and more nourishing."

"Not only is the average farmer's income up, but he gets only 39 cents out of the food dollar now, compared to 51 cents in 1947" made it possible for consumers to use more of their money for non-essentials, but that farmer himself is one of manufacturing's best customers.

"Florida's farmers, for example, spend $115 million a year for fertilizer, $108 million for feed, $33 million for rental of machinery, $33 million for gas and oil, $61 million for spraying and dousing services and $169 million for hired labor — among their major production expenses amounting to $836 million a year."

"In the serving of Thanksgiving dinner in the bungalows and apartment houses of our urban centers, I think it would be appropriate for the hungry partakers to take note with appreciation just where their next meal is coming from."

A Tale Of Two Candidates

Gubernatorial aspirants Kelly and High are the two candidates.

Mr. Kelly distributes an excerpt from the Herald Tribune of New York headed "A Tale of Two States" in which the question is asked "How do we get those roads we really need?"

A comparison is made of the North Carolina $300 million bond issue which is reportedly favored by the voters there in 98 of the 100 counties.

It is stated that our bond issue was defeated by a vote of 423,000 to 275,000.

It is further stated that Governor Burns "unveiled his boondoggle to the legislature and rammed it through the legislature with arm-twisting tactics seldom seen and never surpassed in Florida."

The Herald Tribune added: "How do we get a governor who will provide the leadership we need?" and "how do we get a Highway Department that will build roads where they are needed, and do it efficiently?"

The Tribune answers its own question about a Governor by suggesting Mr. Kelly.

Then it outlines the lack of leadership of a joint House-Senate investigating committee, of which Kelly was Chairman, to secure the passage of 21 pieces of legislation it thought would take care of everything.

A competitor is a man who gets into a revolving door with you and comes out ahead of you. I need my competitor!

It is noted that 16 of the proposals are yet TO BE passed.

The one that is outstanding, according to the report, is one providing a professional engineer as head of the Department — and that didn't pass.

Many Floridians who didn't vote are beginning to wonder as to when the roads will be repaired.

Senator Kelly hasn't offered any plan, as we know of; Mr. High hasn't offered any.

Both gentlemen are — admittedly politicians and hope, with tongue in cheek, that the road bond vote indicates that one of them will win next time.

Both gentlemen are on our list — and this list is not described in ladies seminaries by visiting Men of the Cloth.

We need roads, not destroying politicians who work for their own betterment.

Mr. High and Mr. Kelly are not known widely as advocates of ROADS for FLORIDA!

The Glades wants candidates who advocate four-laning No. 80 to West Palm Beach and US No. 27 to Miami.

We'd like "better" a candidate who outlines a definite workable program to secure these.

Our situation is multiplied many times throughout Florida.

Dedication, sacrifice and hardwork made America and these will keep her great.

Shower-Tea
Compliments
Susan Schoeppel

A shower-tea was among the parties given for Miss Susan Schoeppel, bride-elect of Jimmie Wayne Covert, at the home of Mr. W. C. Bamford on Indian River.

Receiving the guests were the honoree, her mother, Mrs. Eddie Schoeppel, Mr. and Mrs. C. Covert, mother, future bridegroom and grandmother Simmons of Okeechobee. They were presented with the fall motif used throughout the house in decorations.

Billy Coway kept the guest book assisted by Miss Melinda Schoeppel.

The tea table covered with an antique cloth and lace was graced with a three branched candelabra holding a lovely arrangement of fall flowers and greenery. Refreshments were carried out in the refreshments. Pouring during the afternoon from 2 to 4 o'clock were Mrs. Henry Kautz, Canal Point and Carolyn Thompson of Lake Worth.

A beautiful autumn arrangement featuring three branched candelabra, foliage and flowers was on the table by the honoree.

Hostess was Mrs. W. C. Bamford, Mr. Harold Gilbert, Mrs. Ralph Kirk, Mrs. Francis Cross, Mrs. Irvin Zumpf and Mrs. George Hudspeth. They were ye-low hibiscus corsages.

What Ever Happened To Safety Sermons?

When I see Jr. High and elementary students walking to school, it reminds me of the "good ole days" before I got my car. I still remember all the safety sermons about looking both ways before crossing the street.

I'm afraid, however, that the safety sermons stopped after I got a car. Every day when school lets out, the "children" behave as if there were no automobiles on the highway. At least 90% of the school age pedestrians crossing Canal Street fail, not only to look both ways, but to look at all.

Just because automobile drivers have managed to stop in the past doesn't mean that this will happen every time. I say it's about time for some "good ole" safety sermons.

—By Ivan Willis

In Refute of the Above

Mr. Willis — you don't make it quite clear who you believe should receive these "safety sermons." I wonder if you are referring to high school students who walk and have supposedly forgotten everything they learned in the "good ole days," or is it that you think everything beneficial in the school system ceases once you have no more need for it. I assume you, children and adults, are in the latter.

Being one of the unfortunate who does not own a car, I do quite a bit of walking and have first-hand information on who has forgotten "to look at all."

If you will take a moment from your righteous indignation to look up the rules of the road, you will find that the pedestrian ALWAYS has the right of way. Certainly, it would be more courteous of him to wait for you for a change, but, irregardless, it is the motorists responsibility to stop and look both ways. (And speaking of courtesy, walking is a lot slower and maybe the pedestrian is going some place to.

I agree — it is about time for some more "Good ole" safety sermons — for motorists. After all, a pedestrian can't hurt a car too bad.

Para Medics Shines At District Convention

The Para Medics District Convention was held recently at Delray Beach for the purpose of electing district officers and nominees for state office.

John Hudspeth ran for district treasurer, Vicki Bryant for secretary and Janice Williams for president. Janice was elected to the office of District Vice-president.

Those running for state office were Pam Whillock for treasurer, Mary Leigh Amerine for secretary, Sandy Betts for vice-president, and Vicki Bryant for second vice-president, and Barbara Williams for third vice-president. Elected to run for an office at the state convention were Pam Whillock, Mary Leigh Amerine, Sandy Betts and Linda Williams.

Each club in the district was asked to bring its scrapbook and a Health Career Exhibit. The Para Medical Club won a second place award on its scrapbook. The club also won a participation award of $7 for their exhibit in occupational therapy. This winning display will go to the State Convention to compete with the other district winners for a first, second, or third place prize. If this club is the winner, it will then go to the Florida Medical Convention for display.

Seventeen club members from here attended the convention. The chairpersons were Mrs. Lee and Mrs. J. A. Ponder, and the Mrs. Litchfield also attended. There was a drawing for the second largest number of members attending.

The State Convention will be held in Tampa March 31-April 2. Delegates from this district will compete against girls from eight districts for state offices.

F. T. A. Takes Part In State Convention

Mrs. Stevenson, advisor, Brenda Kelley, Jane Zumpf, Dorothy Hines and Linda Williams attended the Florida Teachers Association of Future Convention last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday in Clearwater.

The delegates checked in at the Black Tie Hotel about 9:30 p.m. That evening they attended a Get-Acquainted Coke Party after dinner in the ball room.

Most of Friday morning was taken up by a general assembly in which the candidates for state office were nominated.

In the afternoon, all delegates attended Buzz Groups at these lectures: experienced teachers, college students, the state F. T. A. and F. A. F. T. A. spoke on topics of interest, including the different fields of education, teaching opportunities, exchange teaching, exceptional child education, scholarships and student loans, and fund raising projects.

A luncheon was enjoyed by a local barber shop quartet.

The election of state officers was conducted Saturday morning. After participating in the general election, the delegates from each state left in order to arrive home at an early hour.

At the next regular meeting of the F. T. A., a panel of speakers will be there to share the events and achievements of the convention with the club members.

Learn Now;
Play Later

These are important, but you crack it for you when you crack that book just because it is there and you can make a passing grade the next time.

This kind of learning is normally unlearned right after the test.

The following ten steps will help you to learn intelligently:

1. Get plenty of rest at night so your body creates a lazy mind.

2. Try to see the complete picture, not small portions of it.

3. Study a little bit every day instead of trying to fit it in all at once.

4. Watch for outside interference as the radio and television. Reserve one well-lighted spot in your corner where you can work undisturbed.

5. Keep your mind clear of such thoughts as the foot-ball game.

6. In the association meet to store facts away in your memory.

7. Worry about your appearance, especially if an oral report assignment means speaking in front of the class.

8. Worry about things you can control, help is only a few steps away.

Problems that can be solved — sooner or later — will fall into the following categories:

9. Worry about your appearance, especially if an oral report assignment means speaking in front of the class.

10. Worry about the future and how to prepare for it.

11. Worry about brothers and sisters, particularly if they are younger.

...so who needs roads?

In a Land-Rover you can go virtually anywhere. Its twelve forward gear combinations give you traction for almost any situation and its heavy box frame and light aluminum alloy body give a low center of gravity which lets you drive at breathtaking angles with complete safety. Come in and try one—it runs on roads, too. Basic model costs only $2654.

Smiths, Sr., the Milton Carpenters, John Dunlays, Janie and John H. Dunlays, Sam Clegg, the George Hedges, Sandra and Philip Dunlays and Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Hudspeth of West Palm Beach.

At the business session following the program Mrs. S. N. Knight, Sr., president, Mrs. Bert Roemer reported the recent craft fair party was very successful.

Members and friends were urged to support the Craft Fair which is sponsored by the home maker prior to the Belle Glade-Pahokee game, the proceeds from which will be given to the Woman's Club Library project.

The following new members were unanimously voted in: Mrs. Alfred Wehr, Mrs. Alvaro Sanchez, Mrs. Doug Jeffries.

Mr. Tom Hughey was appointed Publicity Chairman, replacing Mrs. I. L. Price, resigned.

The Woman's Club of Belle Glade, Inc., is the object of mutual improvement, the encouragement of good fellowship among its members and the moral, intellectual, physical and social betterment of the City of Belle Glade and vicinity, primarily through the conduct of fund raising activities for its project of furnishing the new Belle Glade Library.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. C. J. Ashey, Mrs. L. C. Williams, Mrs. Dora McWhorter and Miss Margaret West.

Chapter Hears Band Director

Frederick Stern, band director at Belle Glade High School was the speaker to Iota Epsilon Chapter meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Roger Walker in South Bay.

Mrs. Mike Challand, in charge of the program, introduced Mr. Stern, who gave an interesting talk on "Music Influence on Our Lives."

The Thanksgiving theme was carried out in decorations and refreshments.

At the business meeting members were reminded that the chapter is sponsoring the raffle on a G. E. Color TV set as a project to assist the Woman's Club in furnishing the new proposed Library. The TV may be seen in the window of Lake Shore Apartments.

Tickets on the raffle may be had by contacting any member. Donation is $1.00. The drawing will be held Dec. 18.

LET US BE THANKFUL for a GREAT AMERICA

The first Thanksgiving Day was celebrated during the second winter the Plymouth colonists spent in the New World.

When the colonists arrived they didn't know how to go about planting vegetables, so the Indians showed them how to grow corn and hunt for different types of meat. After the corn harvest had been harvested the people celebrated by boiling, baking, roasting, and giving thanks.

The meal was prepared and served in the food and everyone ate outdoors at big tables. The celebration lasted for three days with feasting, singing, and parading.

The custom of Thanksgiving Day spread from Plymouth to other New England colonies. On November 26, 1789, George Washington issued a general proclamation for a day of thanks.

For many years there was no regular Thanksgiving Day in the U. S. Some states had a yearly Thanksgiving Day, and others didn't.

In 1863, President Lincoln issued a proclamation setting aside the last Thursday of November as that year's Thanksgiving Day.

Later in 1865, President

Roosevelt proclaimed Thanksgiving Day to be celebrated annually.

This was to help bring about a making the Thanksgiving period between Thanksgiving and Christmas less hectic.

Now Thanksgiving Day would be observed the fourth Thursday of November.

GROOMING

There is no doubt about it, first impressions are important. They depend largely on appearance. The boy with the largest wardrobe is not always the boy who dresses best. When he makes a habit of hanging his clothes on the floor, the girl with the largest clothes allowance may look worse than she has shopped him.

If you use most of your clothes budget on fancy clothes, you will not be able to buy shoes, ties, and other articles to go with it.

Yet, well made and well put-together clothes are basic in good grooming. Buy in clothes to combine with those you already have. A mounts to double the trip along the number of changes you would not otherwise have.

Grooming involves something else — something for more fundamental than the clothes you choose. You see off or run your personal apparel to your personal habits. The way you spend the last hour before you go to bed at night and the first hour after you wake up in the morning probably has more to do with your appearance than anything else.

If you want to look as "neat as a pin" when you set out in the morning, you'd better plan well the night before. A glance at the weather report will guide your choice and help you to dress accordingly because of the weather. Is the outfit you plan to wear appropriate? Sunglasses are fine for going on a hike, but they don't belong in the classrooms.

Neither does sheer, frilly, low-cut blouses for girls with wide-open shirts for boys.

Now that you have decided on your attire, look it over. Is it clean? If not, and you still want to wear it, your work is cut out for you. Has the creases been ironed? An ironing, damp cloth, and an iron are in order. Are there any stains on the clothes? If so, they need to be washed in a good cleaning fluid or powder before they are pressed.

The most expensive clothes can look like leftovers from a rummage sale if they are mistreated. Garments hung from a hanger will develop a permanent hump in the back. Clothes tossed on a chair will have pleats and drapery in the unwanted places. If clothes are to be neat and trim they must be hung carefully between washings.

Good skin depends mainly on a proper diet, plenty of sleep and lots of soap and water. Teen years are hard to live with to maintain a clear complexion. The three basic rules — diet, sleep, cleanliness — will go a long way toward giving you the kind of skin you want.

Everyone is neat and attractive some of the time, but it doesn't make a well-groomed person. It's the overall picture that counts.

Grooming is not a question of being off in a big moment. It is an always thing.

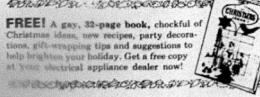

Electric Gifts

For "Whole Family" enjoyment

This Christmas, treat Mom — the whole family — with the perfect gift for year-round pleasure, comfort and convenience. Give a beautiful, flameless, major electric appliance. It's a wonderful way to say love: "Enjoy life... share very best, together."

Remember — there's no match for flameless electric living.

Poignant Memories Stir On This Special Holiday

This time of the year reminds many people about a lot of things. If you are from New England you are reminded of the brilliant autumn leaves. People from the middle Atlantic states thinks of the fragrant odor of apples being harvested. If you are a member of a large, close-knit family you recall with warm feelings the Thanksgiving Days of the past, looking forward to this Thanksgiving.

If you are at home, here in the glades, this time of the year means many things: the tall sugarcane blowing in the gentle wind, the hibiscus blooming brightly, the harvesting of winter crops, the roar of the produce trucks as they travel from the fields to the packing houses, the familiar celery harvesting operations. It seems that all things and all people are on the steady move.

Harvest time here in this rich muck land also reminds people of one thing more — that at this time of the year Mrs. Price's basement probably needs some of their extras. Now, this may be a completely meaningless idea to you, or, if you are a recent newcomer, you may wonder who is Mrs. Price, what are extras and what in the world is in Mrs. Price's basement.

Mrs. I. L. Price has lived in Belle Glade for thirty years. She and her husband moved here from Miami in 1935. From that time until today Mrs. Price has been very active and engaged in an enormous amount of volunteer work connected with the Belle Glade Memorial Hospital. In 1948 she helped to organize the Ladies Auxiliary of the hospital and has been an officer in that organization every year since then. When she could go into her work as a volunteer worker for the hospital, but that in itself in a complete story.

Mrs. Price has also been a great help in working with the many migrants who come to work in the area during the winter months. It was probably Mrs. Price's wonderful spirit of "working for and helping others" that led her and some of her friends to opening the basement for those who wanted to store their surplus clothing, furniture and other household articles.

At first the project was aimed with contributions coming from a circle of women from the Everglades Presbyterian Church where Mrs. Price is a member. Those women had the idea they were starting an institution, for year by year the project grew until finally the center was built. "The center at Mrs. Price's" Then the terrible freeze of the late fifties came and Mrs. Price's basement was much needed and much used storehouse for those in unfortunate circumstances.

From A Small Beginning...

At first the project was aimed with contributions coming from a circle of women from the Everglades Presbyterian Church where Mrs. Price is a member. Those women had the idea they were starting an institution, for year by year the project grew until finally the center was built. "The center at Mrs. Price's" Then the terrible freeze of the late fifties came and Mrs. Price's basement was much needed and much used storehouse for those in unfortunate circumstances.

Concern For The Needy— A Glades Tradition

An Amazing Place!

Mrs. Price's basement — what an amazing place! Why, it is almost a department store, except that it has no cash register. Nothing that is needed there could come and receive their precious articles.

With cooler weather on its way there is a great need for warm clothing and blankets. There is a great need for all things, for this year has been a busy one in this area. The shelves are full, the shelves need to be restocked.

In this season of thanksgiving there are clothes for everyone from infants to grand parents. There are several pieces of furniture such as chairs, lamps, mattresses and box springs. There are toys while there are even clothes for children who might not receive any other presents. Occasionally there is even food in the shelves of the basement.

Perhaps one of the most pleasant stories is that told for it at Royal's Department Store. This account, accumulates monies which are given to several people who are in the center. Mrs. Price to buy special articles which she may not have in the center. For instance, the first few weeks she bought shoes for each member of a family who could not afford them and whose Mrs. Price could not afford. The shoes she had available. Boy's dungearees are another item bought since they are given over to the center.

What happens to the people who are helped by the center? Some are country people never heard of again. Some are yearly dependents who need the support of the center to get them out each year. There are a few who helped in the past and who now are complete self-sufficient. These people are kept in contact with Mrs. Price and have many times expressed their thanks to her and the center for their help to make ends meet as they struggled toward a better life.

Now the question arises, what about the future of Mrs. Price's basement? That depends on the people of this area who have helped in the past. It also depends on other people — those who have never helped in the past. It is just learning of this basement. It depends on you! How do you help? By going through your house, your storerooms, your attics, your closets, your pantry and collecting in boxes all kinds of items, books, canned food, heaters, lamps, dishes, flatware, pots and pans, actually, anything that you can get at a particular store house. Then call Mrs. Price and she will either direct you to her house or will send someone for your boxes of extras.

Your Help Needed!

Right now Mrs. Price's basement is a little bare & for the teachers to stay in the county.

The state needs 5,000 new teachers every year. Mr. Williams said, "but the colleges in the state graduate only about 1,500 teach ers so it is up to the parish to recruit teachers from neighboring states."

Vocational education was discussed and the need of setting up centers to serve the high school in the various areas of the county. Standard vocational courses which will schedule the presentation of course content more uniformly within the county is being undertaken.

Given by Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ball, Jr., they are veterans of the First Baptist Church. The Mammals Series, THE MAMMALS was done for Life Magazine by Richard Carrington, and contains beautiful illustrations on mammal evolution, their movements, how they eat, at-

Norma Burkett
Herald Reporter
For South Bay

Mrs. Norma N. Burkett is replacing Reverend James Fennell as the leading the Glades as the South Bay Herald reporter for South Bay area.

Mrs. Burkett is a life-time resident of the Glades, coming to Belle Glade at age six weeks, and has lived in South Bay the past six years.

Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. N. Starling, who operate a South Bay trailer court, are pioneer residents of the Glades, having moved there by themselves.

Connie Bowen's employer, Ford Motor Co., took cognizance of the fact that she has been in the parts department of the local Ford dealer for twenty years on November 28th by presenting her with a wrist watch, suitably engraved.

Connie is a City Commissioner of the Glades.

Mrs. Bowen is the former Betty Roberts, and the two boys ages six and eleven are students in Belle Glade.

The Ford Dealership in Belle Glade has changed twice since Mrs. Bowen's arrival, but his spirit and his devotion to the business finds him still a devoted staff worker.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Henderson are the wedding of their son, William, and Jeanne of Greenville, Fla. The Hendersons returned to South Bay Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. James Martin of South Bay, had as their guest the past week Miss Leah Jean Andrews of Spring, Fla.

Mrs. Albert Snyder left Sunday to go to the bedside of her Aunt, Mrs. Eunice Smith, who is in critical condition at Lee Memorial Hospital, Fort Pierce. Mrs. Smith underwent major surgery Monday, Nov. 22nd. Mrs. Snyder returned to South Bay Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hall of South Bay, along with Mrs. Eunice Van Landingham and Mrs. Alice Hueston, participated in the football game in Miami, Saturday night. The game was between the Miami Hurricanes and Fla. Gators.

Want to help youth? What better way than through its three part promise dedicated to spiritual, physical, citizenship and service. Scout areas are local youth organization chartered by the Congress of the United States; in turn the local office of the Girl Scout Council, which is responsible for providing quality program for girls in its jurisdiction.

Rev. and Mrs. James A. Fenton and children will begin moving Monday to Wabasso, where Rev. Fenton will be pastor of the First Baptist Church. They expect to be back Tuesday for last minute business.

Rev. Fenton's assignment begins in Wabasso officially December 5.

Help Youth Support The Girl Scouts

Local Girl Scouts get underway this week with a co-ordinated fund drive to support Palm Glades Council services for 2013-1962. Mrs. Violet Felsing, Chamber of Commerce, and Mrs. Alberta Gaskell, President of the Belle Glade Garden Club, will be in charge of the drive. Mrs. W. C. Hart and Mrs. W. O. Norwood are the co-chairmen.

Communities are asked each year for money to provide office services, to operate and maintain three service sites which are available to our troops, and for professional field directors to aid the local volunteers in their community programs. Only 1 percent of adults in scouting are paid.

all the rest are volunteers giving their time, talents, (and gas) because of their belief in the Scout program. Scout leaders for ages 7 to 17 on Brownie, Junior, Cadette, and Seniors levels.

Leaders receive direct help from the Council office, training courses, supplies needed, and registration of troops, and scheduling of camping trips.

Scout leaders nationwide opportunities both on girl and adult level offer a chance to broaden their experience in activities such as Cadette Field Day, Senior Camping Weekend, Tri-Camp, State Conference, and Neighborhood Service Team Workshop.

Want to help youth? What better way than through its three part promise dedicated to spiritual, physical, citizenship and service. Scout areas are local youth organization chartered by the Congress of the United States; in turn the local office of the Girl Scout Council, which is responsible for providing quality program for girls in its jurisdiction.

Rev. and Mrs. James A. Fenton and children will begin moving Monday to Wabasso, where Rev. Fenton will be pastor of the First Baptist Church. They expect to be back Tuesday for last minute business.

Rev. Fenton's assignment begins in Wabasso officially December 5.

The passing ledger showed 17 yards passing for the team and 25 by Pahokee. The Rams butted their way to 18 first downs while Pahokee could manage but

George McDonald helped to keep the Pahokee off the wrong end of the field, with 200 yards, two of which ended in 35 yards from scrimmage.
